Kita Biosonic Peace Machine Basic One Practitioner Training

A Revolutionary Tool of Sound Medicine for the 21st Century

The Kita Biosonic Peace Machine (KBPM) combines the power of sound to heal with the efficacy of Traditional Chinese Medicine which dates back over 5,000 years.

This 'State-of-the-Art' technology developed in Japan provides a natural, nurturing, and noninvasive application to benefit health and well being and support the body's natural ability to self-heal.

Recipients report having an immediate response of:

- Reduced Anxiety - Balancing the 'Fight or Flight' (ANS) Response
- Relaxation and Peace of Mind & Body with less Stress
- Increased Energy, less puffiness, feeling lighter- Clears Toxins
- Less Muscular - Skeletal Pain

Through extensive 'hands-on' practice you will learn:

- The origin, historical and current uses of Sound in healing
- The Scientific and Quantum applications of Sound with the KBPM
- Proficiency in providing 60 minute, 30 minute and mini demo sessions for clients, family, & friends to promote your services
- To create Peace in Mind and Body and a 'Self-Care Practice'

Most practitioners realize a return on their investment within a few months.
